

REMARKS

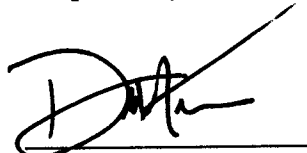

In a telephone conversation between the applicant's representative, David Feigenbaum, and examiner Joseph T. Pan, the examiner acknowledged that the action should have addressed claims 51- through 67, which were added by amendment on October 2, 2003, and not claims 1 through 50, which were canceled. The examiner indicated that he would issue a new action to replace the original action.

In addition, the applicant notes that it does not concede (and specifically contests) each position of the examiner taken with respect to claim 1 through 50 and the Wyman reference. The lack of specific comments by the applicant in response to the positions of the examiner should not be interpreted as such a concession.
